Cascade Designs, Inc. Announces Recall of 2014-2016 MSR Striker™ 240 and 320 probe

Hazard: The lock button on the probe can fail to engage, preventing the probe from staying properly assembled during use, and thus impeding the rapid recovery of a buried avalanche victim.

Consumers should stop using the probes immediately and go to www.msrgear.com/recall for instructions on how to replace your product.
